HOME AUTHORITIES WATCH FOR PHYSICAL FORCE MEN.

DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—The police appear to be acting on special information to to the effect that the Clan-na-Gael in America is again active, and that the members of that society have prepared for a resumption of the physical force policy. Whatever may be the ground for the sudden and evident excess of vigilance on the part of the Castle, there is no doubt that the police themselves place confidence in their source of information and that they are on the lookout for dangerous arrivals. It is acknowledged by leading Home Rulers that the "Hillside" or physical force doctrine has a powerful following in Ireland. But a few days ago John Dillon said in substance that the Hillside with him was secondary to the present constitutional agitation; that before looking to the Hillside he believed in giving the Liberals a chance to show what they would do for Home Rule. Dillon, it is argued, would not have spoken in this way if he had not appreciated the strength of Hillside sentiment. A physical force movement, involving the employment of troops to suppress it, is what the Tories are anxious for. It is understood, however, here that the Home Rule leaders of either faction have little or no influence over the Clan-na-Gael, and nobody would be surprised to hear of some signal and memorable act of violence by emissaries of that association.

PRINCE OF WALES' BIRTHDAY.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The 50th birthday of the Prince of Wales is being celebrated with loyal enthusiasm. It is said that ever since early morning messages have been pouring into Sandringham with gifts, those from the German Kaiser and Prince Henry alone amounting in value to 100,000 marks. This munificence would seem to dispose of any rumor of coldness between the Kaiser and the Prince of Wales and contrast with Wilhelm's treatment of the Czar and Czarina on the occasion of their silver wedding to-day. The fact that the Prince of Wales did not accompany the Princess to the family party at Fredericksburg this autumn may, it is thought, have tended to make the Kaiser think more of him. The city fathers of London, are celebrating at the Guildhall in honor of the occasion, and in every part of Great Britain there is some recognition of the day

THE CZAR'S SILVER WEDDING.

VIENNA, Nov. 9.—A dispatch from Lividia says the silver wedding of the Czar is being celebrated without much display. The gathering is little more than a family party. There are several reasons for this. The Russian famine is understood to be the chief, both the Czar and Czarina being deeply touched by the sufferings of their subjects. Another reason is the hopeless condition of the Czar's second son, the Grand Duke George, of whose recovery there is absolutely no expectation. The Czar and Czarina are deeply plunged in grief over this prospective bereavement, and it is to be near their son as long as possible that they choose Lividia as the place to celebrate their silver wedding. George has been ill now for nearly a year. He started on the tour of the East with his brother, the Czarowich, and had to return from India owing to failing health. Since then every care possible has been bestowed upon him, but he has continued to decline. Another reason is the recent death of the Grand Duchess Alexandria. The Archbishop of Odesea officiates to-day at the religious part of the celebration, which, according to the peculiar forms of the Russian church, is virtually a repetition of the marriage ceremony. The Czar is in receipt of many presents, including the splendid silver pilgrim bottles from the Prince and Princess of Wales and others.

TRANQUILITY IN BRAZIL.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The revived hopes of the partisans of Dom Pedro have been dampened by to-day's news from Brazil, to the effect that there is no prospect of a revolution against the Da Fonseca Government. The latest news from Rio Janeiro shows that everything is tranquil.

Claus Spreckles Interviewed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Rosy faced, smiling and bright, Claus Spreckels, the sugar king, just returned from Europe, where all summer long he has been visiting relatives in Holland, his native heath loomed up at the Hoffman House yesterday en route for home. "How did you enjoy your trip abroad?" I asked. "It was delightful," said the sugar king. "The general condition of Europe is such that I don't see how sensible men can take any stock in war scares." "What's your opinion of the rate of taxation on sugar?" I asked. "It's entirely too light," responded Mr. Spreckles emphatically. "Take the case of the sugar output for the Hawaiian Islands, the tariff of 4 cents per pound has the effect of placing an absolute embargo on the sugar grown on these Islands, as far as the United States is concerned. I have abandoned raising cane on my Hawaiian plantations, and now devote myself exclusively to coffee." "Are you going into the sugar trust?" I asked. "I am not. The trust tried to get its feet on my neck, and now I have succeeded in returning the compliment. I lost money on the war, so says the trust, but I am willing to lose money for the sake of getting even."

A Defaulter's Suicide.

READING, Pa., Nov. 9.—It is now believed that Wm. P. Bard, the missing lawyer, committed suicide, and a search is being made for his body. The Schuylkill canal was drawn off to-day opposite this city, and the river banks have been carefully examined, but no trace of his body has been found. It is stated that he is some $4000 behind in his accounts with the Pennsylvania Mutual Life Co. of Philadelphia, and that he was also unable to pay over considerable sums of money which he held for various persons and estates. The exact amount of his shortage cannot be ascertained.

FINE POINT IN LAW.

Collector Milne Determines to Make a Test Case—A Strange Proposition.

Leong Gan Feong is the name of a Chinese woman who came up from San Francisco by the steamer Umatilla which arrived here this morning, and who was refused a landing on the ground that she was of immoral character and had engaged in immoral practices.

Something over two years ago the woman was an inmate of a Chinese bagnio on Cormorant street. She was at the time known to the police. Later she was taken as wife by a Chinaman, who wedded her according to the Chinese rite, but not in the way recognized as legal by the authorities. The pair left here shortly after for San Francisco, and on arrival there the woman was refused a landing on the grounds that she was being imported into the States for immoral purposes. Bonds were put up by her alleged husband and a writ of habeas corpus obtained and the case was taken into the supreme Court at San Francisco. Pending its decision the woman was allowed to land.

After two years delay the case came to trial, and Judge Morrow held the charge sustained and ordered the woman deported to Victoria. Her alleged husband came with her. He did not wish to land her, but wanted the woman to land.

Collector Milne thought the fact that the alleged husband did not wish to [illegible] land was suspicious and in accordance with the Act which forbids the entrance into Canada of any Chinese woman for immoral purposes, forbid the woman to set foot on Canadian soil. He could not listen to the plea that she was the wife of the Chinaman who brought her here, as the law does not recognize marriages by the Chinese rite.

Legal talent was engaged by Victorian Chinamen, and a big effort made to get the woman ashore. To do this would require a writ of habeas corpus, which Collector Milne trusted would be produced, so that a legal decision could be given on this matter, which could then be used as a precedent in similar cases.

A rather strange proposition was made to the Collector by the Chinese. It was suggested that a license be procured, and that a clergyman go out to the vessel and marry the Chinaman and woman according to law, then she could be admitted on the ground of being a legal wife, and could not be under the imputation of immorality. Collector Milne doubted if a clergyman could be found who would marry the couple under the circumstances, and even allowing such to be possible, he should still refuse to allow her to land, as the spirit of the act would then be violated, since the ceremony of legal marriage would only be a means adopted to evade the law. The act is very concise in its wording. It specifies that no known immoral woman shall land. In this case the woman is known to have following a life of shame, and circumstances point to a probable continuance of it.

A VERY QUICK TRIP.

The clipper ship Titania has always been known to be a flyer, but her last trip from London beats her record to this coast by two days. She anchored in Esquimalt harbor yesterday morning one hundred and eight days out.

She is in command of Capt. Thos. W. Selby, who has shown that he is able to make a quick voyage. Capt. Selby was for quite a time first officer of the clipper ship Cutty Sark, an Australian liner with a record for speed, and has some experience in making fast runs, but he says the old Titania can't be beat if she gets a fair show. Had it not been for fourteen days heavy weather off the Horn the time would have been made under a hundred days. The voyage out was uneventful in the way of exciting incidents, not a spar being carried away or an accident happening. Since rounding the Horn no vessels were spoken.

Capt. Selby sailed his vessel right up the straits to the anchorage, not availing himself of the services of a tug. The Titania passed a ship in tow of a tug just inside Cape Flattery, but sailed by the steam-pulled vessel like a shot.

The Titania is consigned to the Hudson Bay Company and has a large general cargo, part of which consists of naval stores. As soon as that is discharged she will be towed around to the wharves of the H. B. C. She will load salmon for the return trip.

After the Titania has discharged her Victoria cargo she will be towed up to Vancouver and Westminster to discharge the goods consigned to those ports. The cargo consists of a varied assortment of things, wines and liquor being the bulk, however.

THE WELLINGTON STRIKE.

ANOTHER MINERS' MASS MEETING HELD.

Report From the San Francisco Delegate—State of the Coal Supply—The Question of Continuing the Strike to be Voted on by Ballot.

NANAIMO, Nov. 9.—A miners' mass meeting was held here on Saturday, when it was estimated over 1000 men were present to take part in the important business that was expected to be brought up.

Mr. T. Boyce, the chairman, asked if it was the wish of the meeting that the reporters were to be admitted. The reporters, he assured them, did not wish to intrude, but it was for the meeting to say whether they should be allowed to take a report or not. One miner said he failed to see why there should be any secrecy about it, and advocated that they be admitted. A motion was made and seconded that the reporters be admitted. An amendment followed that they be requested to leave. One individual claimed the reporters were not always accurate in their reports. The chairman stated it was almost impossible to get everything perfect. The motion was carried by a large majority and the announcement was received with loud applause.

Mr. Boyce said that at the last meeting of the local lodge they considered it necessary to adopt some system in regard to the making of speeches, and he asked if they intended to carry out the suggestion.

Mr. Carmichael thought every man should say what he liked and speak as long as he liked.

On motion by Mr. Salmon it was decided that every member be allowed ten minutes on the first time of speaking and five minutes the second (on the same question).

The Chairman—It is very important that only members of the union who are in good standing take part in this meeting, and those who are in arrears will please refrain from taking part in the business. We could not exclude the men who are on strike from doing so, but they have generally decided by passing a resolution not to do so, and therefore they will refrain from using their votes. I would like some other person to explain what this meeting is called for.

Mr. Ramsey—I think it is the intention of this meeting to take a secret ballot on the question of the strike, and by that means to ascertain whether it is to be continued or not.

E. Jarvis—I have heard a lot of kicking about the town, and at the last meeting of the local lodge I made a motion that a mass meeting of union miners be called for the purpose of ascertaining the feeling of the men. It was not made with the intention of discontinuing the assessment, but if it is the wish of the meeting to do so now is the time to take such a course. Some of the men have already gone to Wellington to work, as the miners here have been laid idle to a great extent, and it is now essential that the strike be declared off so that the men could go to work anywhere without being called blacklegs. (Applause).

The chairman asked that special attention be given to the business under discussion, and hoped there would be no display of hard feelings, but that what was done be done in a generous spirit. Everyone had a perfect right to express his individual feeling and receive a patient hearing. It has been suggested before going any further that we hear from our representative from San Francisco.

Mr. G. Edwards rose, amid loud applause, and said: Mr. Chairman and fellow working men—What I have to say has not been suggested to me by any other individual, but simply facts as known by myself. The boycott that has been placed on the Wellington coal has never been working so successfully as it is to-day. The cry in San Francisco has been that the supply of coal there has not been plentiful enough for the Confederated Trades to carry it on successfully. They have a good supply now, and I can safely say the boycott is now working satisfactorily. (Laughter.) The Dunsmuirs had to hire an extra yard last week from the Gilman Company to enable them to discharge the Haytien Republic and the Wellington, and also to hire teams to unload the coal from the vessels that were waiting to be discharged at the wharf. I am sure that the Confederated Trades are doing their best to push the matter. Two men had been specially employed by the trades to appeal to the brewers against using the Dunsmuirs' coal, which appeal has been more successful than any previous appeal. The boarding houses have also agreed to do their best in assisting the boycott. The Coast Seamen's Union have also decided to assist in the boycott, and have already done considerable work among the boarding houses; the result being that a large number of them have refused to burn Dunsmuirs' coal. Mr. Finnerty, of the Confederated Trades, was sorry when I told him I was going away, as he said if I stopped another month he would be satisfied, as there was now plenty of coal in the San Francisco market. He was sure the pressure of the boycott would speedily be felt. It is impossible for the association to declare the boycott off, because we never put it on, and if we declare the strike off it will complicate matters. In regard to the question of non-communication between the representative in San Francisco and the union here, it is a mystery I cannot explain. Ten different letters were dispatched from San Francisco, but only three have been received here. In consequence of no notice being taken of the communications sent from the Confederated Trades it has caused much chagrin among the board of delegates. It is quite apparent that our mail has been tampered with.

A miner—Does Mr. Edwards know that the San Pedro loaded on the other side and took her cargo to San Francisco.

Mr. Edwards—I don't know anything about it, and I don't believe it. Further he said it was not true.

The questioner said it was very strange Edwards did not know of it, as it was in one of the Sound newspapers, and he didn't think a newspaper would lie. (Laughter). When we have any one from San Francisco we get some news that the boycott is working splendidly. (Laughter). I think the parties who put the boycott on are the best parties to engineer it, and I think the strike for the last nine months has been a farce. (Applause).

J. Curran—Will Mr. Edwards state how the coal trade in general is in San Francisco.

Mr. Edwards—In regard to the Oregon Improvement Company's yard, it is impossible to state, as admission into the yard is prohibited, so I cannot tell how much coal they have. I can say the Dunsmuirs have three times as much coal as Rosenfelds, and Australian coal is very plentiful just now on account of so many vessels coming to the coast for cargoes of timber. Although there is now a large amount of coal in San Francisco, still the consumption is greater than ever. The Dunsmuirs are selling their coal at reduced rates, and to those who use a large amount is given a rebate. Mr. Jose, who was boycotted on account of using Dunsmuir coal, asked to be taken off the list, as he refused to sell Dunsmuir coal until they recognized the union. He had never been partial to the Dunsmuirs, but they gave a large rebate, which had induced him to buy from them. The same inducement had caused many to buy from them.

J. Curran—I will tell you what I know from my visit to San Francisco. I looked into the Dunsmuirs' yard three weeks ago, and there was not 50 tons of coal in it, and the yard has a capacity for 75,000 tons, and how that coal has got there I don't know. Brother Edwards told me, in a letter from San Francisco that if the committee did not send for him he would return on his own responsibility. (Applause.)

Mr. Edwards denied having used those words, and would like to know how the yard could possibly hold 75,000 tons, or one-third of it. If the yard had been empty the Dunsmuirs would not have needed to hire another yard to discharge their vessels at. With regard to the capacity of the yard, it will hold 30,000 tons.

J. Fitzsimmons—I think it is about time to take a vote on the strike. That is what we have come here for.

Hugh McLean moved that a secret ballot be taken to declare the strike off. An amendment was made that it be taken by a show of hands.

Mr. T. Boyce suggested that every man take one of the ballots that were then on the table and put them into a box that would be furnished at the meeting of the local lodge, which vote would be counted by the officers.

The motion was put and carried, and the announcement brought forth deafening applause.

The meeting here became a boisterous one, and amid the confusion a motion to adjourn was put and carried without the ballot being taken.

It is the intention now to take the ballot as suggested by the president.

BACK FROM THE INTERIOR.

Mr. A. W. Vowell, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, Reports all Well up Country.

Camping out and generally roughing it would not seem to be an enjoyable feature of a trip at this season of the year, but Mr. A. W. Vowell, Superintendent of Indian affairs, is one of those officials who cannot discharge their duties in a private car, or remain all the time in a comfortable office. Mr. Vowell has just returned from one of his official inspection trips, and while he has nothing very startling to report he is satisfied with the general condition of affairs as he found them. He has been visiting the agency in charge of Mr. Mackay, going in from Kamloops to Savona's Ferry, Ashcroft, Spence's Bridge through the Nicola country, Similkameen, Penticton, Vernon and Spallumcheen. The weather a great portion of the time was rough. Mr. Vowell found the Indians on the whole contented and comfortable. Throughout the agency, owing to the constant advice given them by the agent Mr. J. W. Mackay, there is a noticeable improvement in the style of their dwellings, and in fact in their general surroundings. In one portion of the Nicola country the Indians do all the teaming. They own their horses and wagons, with which they earn a comfortable income. In Agricultural pursuits they are beginning to show more industry, putting under cultivation large tracts of land. The Indians at the head of Okanagan Lake did very well with their wheat this year.

Speaking of the crops, Mr. Vowell found that the wheat output throughout the district, though not up to the average, had been very fair this year. The fact is attributed by some to the lightness of the snow fall last winter, while others say it is owing to inferior seed. Still, the results were very fair.

The town of Vernon is progressing very satisfactorily. It was a surprise to Mr. Vowell to see a town where there was practically nothing at all when he visited it last. New buildings are in course of erection, and the people look forward to quite a future for the place. It has one advantage, and that is it is situated in a grand wheat growing district.

At Kamloops, on the way home, the Indian school was visited, and the scholars found to be making fair advancement in the rudiments of a good ordinary education.

Game was very plentiful all through the country traversed by the Superintendent, but his time was too much occupied to allow his going in for sport, and he had to let the [illegible] go by.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

MR. CHAPLEAU'S LATEST AND STRONGEST KICK.

His Large Demands on Premier Abbott—Vigorous Efforts Made on His Behalf—The Manitoba School Act Judgment—Crofter Immigration Prospects.

From Our Own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—The week which has just closed has been an exciting one in political circles. Mr. Chapleau is once more the cause, being on strike, to use the popular word which is applied to the Secretary of State when at variance with the Cabinet. The striking propensities of Mr. Chapleau have been so manifest since his entry into the Cabinet that they had almost ceased to attract any special interest, but in the present instance the trouble between himself and Mr. Abbott is too serious not to closely engage the attention of the public. The reasons for Mr. Chapleau's attitude are well known, arising from the portfolio of Railways and Canals, which Mr. Abbott at one time promised the Secretary of State, and which he now refuses. To pave the way for this refusal Mr. Abbott caused the Montreal Gazette and Toronto Empire to publish editorials to the effect that Mr. Chapleau could not get the Railways for the present, adding that it was his duty to clear up the numerous scandals which were brought up before the Public Accounts committee last session in regard to the Printing Bureau before getting promotion. This was as far as these articles went, but it is a well known fact that in Western Canada the Conservatives are anxious to get rid of the Secretary of State. The Government, too, would like to see him depart in peace, but that he is not likely to do. Mr. Chapleau is not constructed after that fashion. He is nothing if not troublesome, and now that he has got his old political enemy, Sir Hector Langevin—between whom and Caspleau there were secretly long and bitter feuds—out of the way, he is not apt to be any more pliable, and will therefore be a great source of annoyance to any government of which he may be a member.

WANTS THE EARTH.

Mr. Chapleau, knowing the weakness of the administration and his own strength to bring Mr. Abbott to his way of thinking, is by no means very modest in his demands. In addition to presiding over the Railways and Canals Department, he asks that he be the recognized leader of the French Canadian race in Parliament, and that he may have the privilege of naming the Quebec ministers who shall sit along with him in the Government. This would make Mr. Chapleau all powerful in the Government, and most people imagine that he has got more power now than is good for the country. These demands he has slightly modified, but not to any great extent, and consequently the breach between himself and Mr. Abbott remains as wide as ever, although the friends of the Premier say that Mr. Chapleau is ready to give in and take what he gets, while the Chapleauites maintain that they will not budge one iota. They see their opportunity of getting what they desire for themselves and their Province or wrecking the Government, and they will not hesitate to do the latter if they do not get the former. If Mr. Abbott is wise he will let Mr. Chapleau go, no matter what threats he may use, as he will be continually a source of trouble to him. The Government is doomed anyway, but its defeat will be brought about sooner with Mr. Chapleau in the Cabinet than out of it. My own observa ion has been that once a French Canadian ceased to be a member of the Government and has no patronage to distribute his following is very small. To-day there are none to do Sir Hector Langevin honor, and few to respect him. To-morrow if he was placed at the head of the Public Works Department he would be once more at the height of his glory. A few weeks ago he was the leader of a proud race in the Parliament of Canada, to-day his name is not mentioned. Do not suppose this is because of the scandals which permeated his department, but rather because he has no more any patronage to give to his hungry following. Chapleau, the fiery orator of French Canada, and possessing a firmer hold on the hearts of the French habitants than ever the aristocratic Sir Hector did, would not disappear so quickly. He would retain a following for some time, but one by one they would desert him as Mr. Abbott secured positions for them.

THE ACTING SECRETARY OF STATE.

Mr. Chapleau has frequently made a noise in the Government over lack of patronage or for promotion, but never since his entry to the Government did he carry things so far as now. He has been on many an occasion on the verge of leaving the Ministry, but not until now has he been out of it. For a week he has ceased to act in the department, and as I wired the TIMES, the Hon. J. C. Abbott is acting in his stead. Delegation after delegation of Chapleauites have visited the Premier, endeavoring to patch up the row, but without avail, and delegations have visited Mr. Chapleau to present him with the views of the Premier, but so far the breach remains as wide as ever. How it will end it is difficult to say.

MANITOBA SCHOOL LAW.

The Supreme Court has given its decision in the case of Barrett vs. the city of Winnipeg, better known as the Manitoba School Act, unanimously declaring the act unconstitutional and invalid. This rids the Government of a very troublesome question, but the likelihood is that Premier Greenway will appeal the case to the Privy Council. Hon. S. H. Blake argued the case for the appellants, that is, the Roman Catholics who brought the case into court, and Hon. Joseph Martin, the father of the act, argued the case for the Manitoba Government. There is a good deal to be said in favor of a common school system, but the court has decided that by "practice" the Catholics of Manitoba are entitled to separate schools. By law Quebec and Ontario got separate schools at confederation and the Manitoba Act of 1871, according to the Supreme Court, guarantees by the words "law or practice" separate schools to that province.

IMMIGRATION.

I had a chat to-day with Hon. John Carling, who informs me that the flow of immigration next season to the Pacific slope will be greater than has been the case for years past. He expects that the arrangements which are being made to bring out Scotch crofters will turn out a success. As agriculturists the Scotch crofters are not altogether successful at home, even if the land were plentiful, but animated by their better surroundings and good example in British Columbia they would ultimately succeed. They are a frugal people. SLABTOWN.

An Experts Opinion.

Chief Bonner of the New York fire department has opened his mind to a reporter of a daily paper upon the subject of the burning of the slow combustion warehouse at St. Louis, and the criticisms made upon the work of the St. Louis fire department, in a manner which will excite considerable interest. He is reported as saying: "This fire fully demonstrates that the advocates of slow burning structures do not know it all, and evidently never will learn. It is the easiest thing in the world for underwriters or others to stand on the sidewalk in front of a burning building and criticise the actions of the men who have devoted a life time to the cause of extinguishing fires, but I have yet to learn that any such experience has been requested with a view to perfect the so called slow burning structures. It is the old method repeated from time to to time. Defective construction, which is generally termed slow burning, may possibly permit the existence of the life of a building a few minutes longer. At the final the department is always criticised, and rarely, if ever, is the architect or builder, or its construction, mentioned in writing up the great losses which naturally follow the destruction of such a building. Our experience in this city with this class of buildings is about similar to all other cities that are constructing them, and I predict that the losses caused by the erection of such structures will be even greater than formerly, when the old ramshackle buildings were recognized, as the life of such a building was limited to a few minutes after a fire was under way, and when down it was beyond its power to cause further destruction." Chief Bonner's views are certainly radically opposed to those of the upholders of slow burning construction, but as the utterances of one of the most experienced firemen in the world, they give one something to think about.—Fire and Water.

Gladstone and Goschen.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Gladstone has written a letter with reference to the statement of Chancellor of the Exchequer Goschen, in which the latter is credited with saying that Gladstone negotiated with both the rival Irish parties at Boulonge. In this letter Gladstone says: "What Goschen says he understands he misunderstands. I had no more to do with the proceedings at Boulonge than he had. When Parnell ceased to be leader I informed McCarthy of my desire to hold free communication with him. The communications were made for publicity and not for secrecy. Of the police question I said what Morley said, that I regard the care of the police as the proper business of the local government in Ireland, London and everywhere else. On the land question I was not aware that anything was named which was withheld in 1886.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO
There settled in Baker county, Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."
Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.

I AM A MAN
"I have been treated by doctors, who had long lists of so-called cured patients, but they could not reach my case, and hope had been murdered in me by fair promises, but on first application of your magical appliance, hope and confidence came flocking in stronger than the combined powers of the four winds. I knew then that you would cure me, and now that I am a man and well again, I cannot thank you sufficiently for the cure. So again I say, use my name as reference whenever you wish. You nor any one else cannot use words too strong to express my sentiments in favor of so wonderful a treatment as that given by you."

THE DOMINION FRANCHISE.

Eastern papers state that the Kingston election will not take place until the new voters' list is made out, while the Quebec West election will be brought on very shortly, the old list of 1889 being used. The reason given is that the Government hopes the Pacaud scandal will have some effect in Quebec, and will therefore hurry up the election there while yet the scandal is fresh. It is hardly possible to believe that the Government is contemplating such an outrage. Before the Parliament adjourned Sir John Thompson promised that the bye-elections would not be held until the new lists were ready, and the use of the old list in Quebec West would be so indefensible that it is hardly possible Sir John would entertain the idea. Nevertheless, the rumor emphasizes anew the opportunities for crookedness presented by the Franchise Act and the desirability of having it repealed. It is open to the Government to decree that the bye-elections in both Kingston and Quebec shall be held on the list drawn up in 1889, though there must have been numerous changes in the electorate within the interval. No ministry should have power to further its own purposes by any such means. Responsible Government exists only in name if elections are to reflect the views of constituencies not as they are at present, but as they were three years ago. It is evident, however, that such mischances are liable to occur so long as the Franchise Act exists, for the revision of the lists is so expensive a protest that the Government frequently asks that it be suspended for a year on the plea that no general election is likely before the next year. Thus it happened that when Sir John Macdonald decided in the interests of his party to have a general election last March, lists over two years old, were used, and the opinions of the people were not fairly pronounced at the polls. This of itself would be sufficient cause for the repeal of the Act, but others are furnished by every revision of the list. The operation is fearfully expensive, and the mode prescribed is so cumbersome that the revision is never complete. It is not right that voters should be put to so much trouble to have their names registered as is the case with some classes now. For instance, while the preliminary list for Victoria was in hand several names were sent in which do not now appear on the list, probably because of carelessness, or worse, in Chapleau's famous Printing Bureau. If those whose names were thus neglected wish to have them added at the final revision they must give notice to the Revising Officer and then appear before him in person to make good their claims, all this trouble being put on them by some other person's carelessness. An act under which such things are possible is unfit for a place on the statute book.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A Kingston dispatch states that eggs are being smuggled from Canada across the St. Lawrence in large numbers. This seems to be very strong evidence that the New York state market would be much better than that of England for the industrious Canadian hen, only for the McKinley duty on eggs.

James H. Metcalfe, M.P.P. for Kingston, has been at Ottawa endeavoring to secure the Government's recognition of his candidature for the seat left vacant by the death of Sir John Macdonald. He says that much of the local opposition to him in his own party has been withdrawn, and appears to have strong hopes of securing the Conservative nomination.

It appears that J. Israel Tarte has placed his resignation as member of Parliament for Montmorency in the hands of his counsel, presumably on account of the protest entered against his election. Whether he will run again is not stated. The Montreal Star, speaking of Tarte's resignation, says he will go down in history, not as a noble vindicator of the honor of Canada, but as Chapleau's "Man Friday," who knifed a rival to prepare the way for his master. This is hardly fair to Mr. Tarte, for if his exposure of Sir Hector Langevin opened the way for Chapleau's preferment it was only because the Tory Premier was too weak to deal with the latter properly.

The Fredericton Herald asserts that when protests were entered against the return of the three Liberal members from New Brunswick the $3000 necessary for deposits was sent down from Ottawa, and the petitions themselves were all printed at the Government Printing Bureau, with the names left blank, so as to be filled up to suit each case. A St. John barrister received the funds and printed blanks, and was instructed to petition against all three Liberals. "We have good reason" says the Herald, "to believe the same thing was done all over the Maritime Provinces, if not throughout the Dominion, but of the latter we cannot speak from accurate information." The Tory journals that were so shocked by Pacaud's operations apear to have nothing to say regarding the Herald's accusation.

At the recent meeting of the Grand Trunk Railway Company in London some references were made to Dominion affairs generally. Sir Henry Tyler spoke of the coal duty, which, he said, cost the Grand Trunk $500,000 a year, and benefited one little corner of Canada at the expense of the whole Dominion. The President's only allusion to Tupper was the statement that the year was one of political disturbance, and that some politicians, not content with fighting each other, wanted to fight the company. Mr. Baker, who was leader of the "opposition" at the previous meeting, attacked Tupper for his article on Imperial Federation in the Nineteenth Century. Seeing the past attitude of the Government towards the Grand Trunk, the High Commissioner's duty, Mr Baker held, was to leave such subjects alone, and apply himself to assisting the railways to earn their dividends, thus restoring Canada's credit among English investors. There was much insistence by various speakers on the advisability of approaching the Canadian Pacific in order to secure friendly relations and an increase in rates. The Canadian people will hardly fall in with Mr. Baker's idea that Tupper should concern himself with arrangements between the two companies to secure higher rates and better dividends, but they will agree with him that the High Commissioner cannot do much good by pottering with the federation scheme.

HOW PEOPLE LIKE TO BE ROBBED.

TO THE EDITOR.—Your editorial note of Thursday is most opportune as shewing the people of British Columbia the difference between the taxes imposed by the cities for municipal government and those collected by the federal government at Ottawa. The city taxes are a mere trifle compared with such a sum as $101,000 collected every month in the year at at the Victoria custom house, and, as you say, "shipped off to Ottawa with no corresponding return."

But the whole truth is not contained in that one statement. The $101,000 collected at the custom house represents less than half the amount of taxation inflicted on us under our high tariff. We pay out the large half without noticing it. Every car load of goods we bring in from Toronto or Montreal or any other eastern city has the duty added on to it by the manufacturer there who gathers in the high percentage as so much profit on his goods. Every luxury, every necessary of life that you can conceive of which is made in Canada has nearly the amount of the customs duty added on to it when it is placed in the market here. Well then, what is the result in brief? If every article of consumption which is brought into this city, were purchased outside of Canada, and if every article paid duty at our custom house the total customs receipts would probably not be less than $250,000 per month or $3,000,000, think of it! three millions per year. This result would be obtained and the goods we use would not cost us any more than they do now. Just think of it. I say, $3,000,000 squeezed out of the trade of this city every year and yet people talk of our high municipal taxation.

BILLIARDS.

RECONCILED AFTER EIGHTEEN YEARS.

The unexpected seemed bound to happen in that big billiard game of hoodoos and phylacteries and visions from dreamland that Champion Shaefer and George F. Slosson played last week. But nobody ever looked for the strangest and most unexpected thing that did happen, namely, that the two great rivals would bury the hatchet. It was buried at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, and there was a regular love feast afterward. The tremendous walloping the champion got at the student's hands oddly enough was the thing that brought about the result that nobody had been able to accomplish before. The experts had been practically at swords' points for eighteen years, and did not speak as they passed by.

When the great game was over and the champion went away in a fit of the blues to Billy Sexton's rooms, a crowd went up from the hall to the victor's office in the Columbia rooms. Dudley Kavanagh, the old war-horse of billiards, led the party. He was the successful peacemaker, too. With him were Maurice Daly, A. F. Troescher, young Julius Balke, Silva, the skeleton, and Captain Turner. They congratulated Slosson.

"It would be a nice thing," suggested somebody to the Student, "to go up and shake hands with Jake. You can afford to be generous in the hour of triumph."

The suggestion kind of staggered George. He demurred. Old War-horse Kavanagh stepped up and whispered in his ear, "Do it, my boy."

The student jumped into his overcoat in a jiffy and clapped on his hat. The party boarded a Broadway car and dropped off at Sexton's. Champion Shaefer sat in a gloomy reverie in a corner. Kavanagh told him that Slosson wanted to shake hands with him. The Wizzard looked surprised. He declined. Then the party coaxed, and Jake got up. Slosson held out his hand. The Wizzard seemed a little dazed at the unusual proffer from his old-time enemy in billiards. He took the outstretched hand slowly.

"If I've done anything that's offended you in the past," Slosson said, "I'm sorry for it. We've been kept apart, but I guess outside friends had more to do with keeping open the breach than we had."

Schaefer shook hands friendly enough then.

"Let's all open a basket with me," Slosson cried, and there was a glad salute of popping corks. Everybody seemed happy over the reconciliation. Wine flowed until 5 o'clock, when the victor started for the Park Avenue hotel. Billy Sexton hadn't got home yet at last accounts. He was bubbling over with joy.

The champion started for Chicago with his wife at 10 o'clock yesterday. The last thing he did was to offer to play Slosson in this city for the championship emblem. The Student snapped at the offer. He will allow Schaefer $250 expenses to come here and play.

UPPER COUNTRY NOTES.

From the Vernon News.]

The Post Office department has raised the salary of our postmaster here by an increase of $20 per m—no, year.

The Okanagan sawmill has been erected on its new site, north of the steamboat landing at the Mission. The machinery is being placed in position.

Messrs. Crozier and Duncan Wood have the contract to construct the irrigation ditch through Guisachan. The managers of the estate will make the ditch from Mill Creek to their property.

Five acres on the Aberdeen estate will be planted out in hops next spring.

Hon. Majoribanks returned to the Mission on Saturday.

Mr. T. Jones is about to erect a new house on his ranch in the Mission valley.

We understand that while in New Westminster negotiations were made by Lord Aberdeen for the purchase of the Knox property at Okanagan Mission, but so large a price was asked that no deal was made. Knox expects to return to the Mission.

Freight rates from Vernon to coast points will be (approximately) as follows: For less than carload lots—1st class, $1.85 per cwt.; 2nd class, $1.55; 3rd class, $1.24; 4th class, 95c.; carload rates on grain, potatoes, etc., 46 to 48 cents per 100 lbs. Local passenger rates may be estimated at 5 cents per mile.

There seems no truth in a rumor that the C.P.R. intend putting a steamboat on Okanagan lake next year.

Geo. Mann, an old miner, hunter and trapper at Rogers' Pass, has just returned from Portland, Ore., where he went to buy a lot of dogs for hunting bears this fall, being supplied with $1000 for that purpose by an English tourist hunter.

Chas. Phillips, a boy of 14 years, was tried at Nicola before Judge Spinks, Oct. 12, on a charge of having stolen a horse from Indian Chief Johnny Scilleesha and Indian Francis, on Sept. 27, 1891, and, pleading guilty, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. While at the Kamloops jail awaiting the time when he should be taken to the penitentiary he escaped.

The rains of this week have retarded the progress to some extent, but the oldest settlers say we will have six weeks of fine weather in November yet.

Killed a Cow.

Last evening about 6:30 a valuable cow belonging to Mr. W. H. Saunders, of the Esquimalt road, was killed by a street car, on the curve near Hon. C. E. Pooley's residence. The car was traveling pretty fast at the time and went half way over the animal's body after it had been knocked down.

Returned from the Fatherland.

Captain W. H. Behnsen returned Saturday evening from Europe, having left his boy with a son of Ald. Coughlan, at school in Germany. The news of the decease of Mr. Kurtz was the only thing that marred the pleasure of Mr. Behnsen's return. He had a very pleasant time while away, and saw all of his native land.

In the Police Court.

His Honor Police Magistrate Belyea was saluted by a very ordinary dock this morning. Beyond the usual Sunday sinners there was nothing that called for the exercise of the higher legal capabilities, and his honor sent the delinquets quickly away. The woman Marie Bouton, who accused two other women of stealing $100 dollars from her, could not prove her case. The women were accordingly discharged.

Was Sure of Heaven.

A Chinaman named Ah Louey has been giving the police authorities of Westminster a lot of trouble lately, he having developed a desire to kill another Mongolian. Magistrate Atkinson, before whom the would-be murderer was tired, gave the man some good advice, and told him that he should reform or the gallows would be his end. Ah Louey replied that he did not care, he was a Christian and would go to heaven anyway.

Thousands of Pretty Things.

The ladies of St. James' Sewing Society have been at work since early this morning filling St. James' Hall with thousands of pretty things to be disposed of at their bazaar which is to be held to-morrow. The hall is literally packed with the thousand pieces of fancy work made by the deft fingers of the willing workers. Screens, cushions, fancy chairs and tables are also scattered around, making one of the prettiest bazaars ever seen in the city. The hall will be opened at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon and remain open during the afternoon and evening.

A Long Trip.

Charles Barnes has returned from an extended expedition through the interior of the Province searching for land. He rode 1400 miles through the country around the old telegraph trail and beyond Fraser Lake. He went 380 miles from Quesnelle looking for suitable sites for cattle ranches and located a large tract of land which he will take up for that purpose, leaving here in April with a band of cattle. The land Mr. Barnes says is only suitable for raising cattle. He brought down a bunch of Kentucky blue joint grass 7 feet 4 inches high. The country is a rough one, agricultural land being in spots. Mr. Barnes brings good news from Quesnelle Forks, where he says the miners are all doing well. Messrs. Keith and Borland are spending a lot of money in Cariboo drawing water to their claims. From what could be gathered from different miners it is evident that they have had a good season and Mr. Barnes is of opinion that Cariboo will see another mining boom before many years.

From Old Cassiar.

Thos. Harvey, one of the old-time prospectors of Cassiar, returned from the north on the steamer Mexico, after an eventful prospecting trip through the most northern portion of the province. Tibbet Creek he says is now one of the best camps in the portion of the country where he has been, but even there has been no important find. Seven white men and 15 Chinamen will remain there during the winter. From reports nothing startling has occurred on McDame's creek during the season, in fact, about the same amount of gold has been taken out this year as formerly. The miners have to do well, as provisions are very dear, salmon being sold at 75 cents a tin, and other provisions in proportion. What is wanted is more settlers and roads or trails. The country, said Mr. Harvey, is a rich one, and the Government should open it up. About 100 miners came down from Yukon on the Mexico with Mr. Harvey, and he learned from them that they were also suffering for the want of roads and trails to take them to the mines. Some of them had made $300 to $400 during the three weeks that they worked. The shortest way to get to the Yukon mines would be by the way of Devoe Creek and Pillar River. A road cut from Devoe Creek to Pillar River, a short distance, would do a great deal of good. The miners could then go down Pillar River in canoes.

Anderson, of the Hattie Gage; Supt. Alfred Dickson, of the Sitka Indian Trading School; W. T. Thompson, of the Alaska Mining Co.; S. H. Perrin, superintendent of the Chilcat Packing Co.; J. J. CHARITABLE VICTORIANS.

Saturday's meeting of the directors of the Provincial Jubilee Hospital seemed to have been called for the express purpose of receiving handsome donations from charitably disposed Victorians. Those present were: President Davies, Vice-President Chas. Hayward, J. S. Yates, A. Wilson, W. M. Chudley, Geo. Byrnes, T. Braverman and A. G. Flumerfelt. President Davies' donation of $1163, the commission on the sale of the gravel pit lots, and $200 from Hon. F. G. Vernon, the proceeds of his libel suit against the TIMES.

Messrs H. F. Helsterman & Co., agents for the Mutual Life Insurance Co., also came forward generously by offering 5 per cent. upon all premiums paid on Victoria business between November 16th and December 31st.

The secretary of the N. E. T. & L. Company, limited, wrote stating that the company intended setting apart a day as hospital day as soon as the new cars were running. One half of the gross receipts of that day would be handed over to the hospital.

President Davies, who was appointed a committee of one to investigate the needs of the institution, presented a long report prepared during the time he was a patient at the hospital. Among the improvements recommended was the building of a crematory, laundry, disinfecting shed and a private electric light plant. Other matters, such as road building and drainage, were touched upon in the report, which was referred to a special committee.

The reports of the officer of the Institution show a total of 50 patients in the hospital.

The treasurer was authorized to negotiate a loan of $5000. The directors will meet every two weeks hereafter.

The report of the ladies' auxiliary, who had charge of the ball, shows a balance of $963 for the benefit of the hospital. Following is the financial statement:—

LEADS THE STOCK LIST.

BRITISH COLUMBIA IN FAVOR ON THE LONDON MARKET.

Hon. Mr. Turner, the Finance Minister, Scores a Brilliant Financial Success When Other Governments Feared to Face the Money Market.

Hon. J. H. Turner, Finance Minister for the Province, was a passenger inward on the Islander last evening after an absence, in the old country, extending over several months. Although it is evident that Mr. Turner has thoroughly enjoyed himself, and that for that reason as well as the large measure of success which attended his mission, he is pleased with his trip, it is also equally evident that he is not displeased at reaching home once more.

Chatting with a reporter this morning he referred to several points. It would surprise one how busy the staff is kept in Mr. Beeton's office, London, answering enquiries and giving information about British Columbia. Numbers of people apply daily. They are composed of all classes, mechanics, laborers and agriculturists, but the predominating element is young lawyers, clerks and people of the lighter callings, all imagining that they can get something out here. There are plenty of young fellows, unaccustomed to any kind of hard work, who are anxious to become farmers, or do any sort of work. Mr. Turner recited an example of the sweet innocence, commonly termed "greenness," of one of these applicants. He wanted to know if he could tie up his horse in Victoria, and gravely took a note of the Finance Minister's advice to bring a rope for that purpose. The "green one" was very much afraid he might get lost in the woods with his brother, but promised Mr. Turner to come to the country and cast in his lot with it. Mr. Turner did his best to advise such applicants as to the class really required here. There was, though, one feature about this that is encouraging for the future, and that is that attention is being turned to this country, though in the rush that may come, there cannot but be some that will not be the most desirable. Mr. Turner advised that class to stay at home; things are pretty good just now, workmen are making decent wages and are mighty well off. When a person has some money and can afford to look round when he gets here the chances are in his favor.

BRITISH COLUMBIA IN HIGH CREDIT.

The main object of Mr. Turner's visit was the floating of the loan of £200,000 for the province. This money is not actually wanted just now, but it was obtained with a view to consolidating the provincial debt later on.

Mr. Turner's visit was very opportune. He arrived just about the time when the Dominion had been there with respect to a loan, and had not been very successful. In fact they had dropped the idea, and Mr. Courtenay did not think it was a proper time for the province to go. New South Wales, one of the favorites of the London market for loans, had also been home, and had also withdrawn, in view of the unsatisfactory state of the money market. Mr. Currie, of the great banking firm of Glynn, Mills, Currie & Co., and financial adviser of the English government was speaking to Mr. Turner on the question, and said that the latter had just arrived in the nick of time. He (Mr. Currie) thought it possible that British Columbia being a new borrower, might safely make this demand. The reasons he gave were, in addition to that already mentioned, that considerable attention is just now being turned towards this part, and the opinion of stock brokers was that, being a new, progressive country of wonderful growth, and rapidly improving, advances might safely be made. Therefore Mr. Currie thought there was a chance just then, though it was an unprecedented thing for a province to have an inscribed stock at anything like three per cent. to place British Columbia in one of the best positions on the Stock Exchange, ranking with the very first countries. From the natural accident of the stock list being arranged alphabetically British Columbia quotations head the list, and this fact undoubtedly will materially help her with trustees on the stock market as they look down the list each morning. The loan was floated at 3 per cent. It sold for 86. The quotation was one-eighth higher when Mr. Turner left owing to the very great care that had been taken in the investment of the funds.

On the stock list the old debt of the Province assumed by the Dominion on confederation was quoted as belonging to this Province. This Mr. Turner had altered and placed where it should be, with the Dominion.

THE CROFTER QUESTION.

With regard to the Crofter question, Mr. Turner has not much to say. He met the Marquis of Lothian, who takes such an active interest in this movement, and was most cordially treated, as well as hospitably entertained by that nobleman. The Marquis is thoroughly posted in the details of the question, and is very anxious to see the Crofters benefitted by the movement. He thinks, with Mr. Turner, that say fifty selected families would do for an experiment, but the feeling, both with the Scotch people generally, as well as the Marquis, is that the cream of the people, so to speak, thus selected could not be spared, whereas the other portion would scarcely do. The Marquis of Lothian thinks that the crofters, with a piece of land of their own, and the independence of the citizenship of a province, would make a very industrious and desirable class.

Mr. Turner has been absent from London for many years, and he was very much struck with the fact that she still maintains the proud position of the queen city of the world. The improvements are greater than ever and the city's cleanliness is perfect.

SCHOONER ETHEL CONFISCATED.

Capt. Fred Deering of the sealing schooner Ethel, came down on the Mexico on Saturday evening. He is on his way to San Francisco to procure bonds for the release of his vessel which was seized by the U.S. revenue cutter Corwin and towed into Sitka, although she had done no sealing after being warned to leave the sea.

The case of the Ethel was heard before Judge Bugbee, and in summing up the evidence he said that he should order the vessel's confiscation, not on the charge laid by Capt. Hooper of the Corwin, but because she had been found in the sea. Judge Bugbee held that President Harrison had no right to issue any proclamation at all, and the vessel was therefore liable under the old law. Capt. Deering says that Bugbee was in a beastly state of intoxication the evening previous to the trial, and he does not think that the judicial mind was altogether free from liquor when the case was being tried. An appeal will be made to the Supreme Court when the bonds are prepared.

A MURDEROUS CHINAMAN

Kills a 'Frisco Police Officer and Wounds Two Other Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Special Police Officer Gillen was shot and killed yesterday afternoon by a Chinaman named Chew Sin Jan, who also shot and probably fatally wounded Joseph Cowell, a milkman, besides wounding G. Barberis, a restaurant keeper. The Chinaman was walking along the street when a wagon driven by John Smith and John McGreevy, two young men, passed him. They made some remark which angered the Chinaman, who drew a revolver and fired a shot, striking Cowell, who was also in the wagon, in the left breast, near the lung. A crowd gathered about the Chinaman and Officer Gillen hastened to the scene. As he approached Chew Sin Jan raised the revolver again and fired squarely at the officer, the bullet striking near the heart. The Chinaman then started to run, a great crowd in pursuit, among them Barberis. Chew San Jan halted and fired over his shoulder, wounding Barberis in the thigh. The Chinaman then turned into Montgomery avenue and was making for Chinatown when he was seized by Edward Carosio and Antonio Bacicagupi, teamsters. Carosio threw his overcoat over the Chinaman's head and threw him down. The latter fired through the coat, but fortunately missed Carosio. A police officer came up and the Chinaman was taken to jail. Here a second revolver was found on him with its five chambers still loaded. Five hundred dollars in gold was also found in a canvas belt. The Chinaman claims that he had just arrived in this city with his wagon from Sacramento, where he had been working, and that when he was surrounded by the crowd he was afraid that his money would be taken from him. Gillen was a brother of Sergeant O. W. Gillen, of the regular force, and had been a special officer for about a year. He was 24 years of age and engaged to be married to a young lady of San Jose.

THE QUEBEC SCANDAL.

Statements Made by Ministers—Mr. Casgrain Gets Too Much Evidence.

QUEBEC, Nov. 3.—J. C. Langlier, commissioner appointed to settle the claims of the Baie des Chaleurs railway, was the first witness before the royal commission this morning. He began by stating that he had not been able to find certain letters he was ordered on Saturday to produce. Witness then read a number of letters. One of these was from Garneau, Minister of Public Works, instructing him to settle the claims of the railway and explaining the nature of the claims. Another was from Pacaud asking witness to protect the interest of the Union Bank in connection with the $100,000 when the occasion offered. Regarding the order-in-council instructing him to settle the claims of the railway, Langelier said he did not know who proposed it. He had nothing to do with its preparation. Witness consulted Luduc as to Armstrong's claim; he did not care to act on his own accord. Respecting the five $20,000 checks witness said that when he signed them he knew there was no money to his credit in the bank, but he signed them at Armstrong's request, knowing the money would be provided shortly. Subsequently he was informed by the cashier of the Union Bank that the letters of credit were at his bank ready to be negotiated. Witness said he negotiated the letters at Armstrong's request, not at Pacaud's. He acknowledged, however, in reply to a question of Congran that Lesage or Machin told him informally to negotiate the letters. Witness did not know at the time that he had done anything irregular in giving his checks before the banks had the necessary funds to his credit.

Philip Valliere, manufacturer, gave evidence and was examined by Judge Jette. He endorsed three notes for $20,000 each signed by Pacaud. He got $100 to endorse each of Pacaud's notes. Casgrain endeavored to establish by witness that the Mercier Government was the only Government that would do such an irregular business, but witness stated that he had endorsed notes for other governments and was ordered to produce proofs to-morrow.

QUEBEC, Nov. 4.—Valliere appeared before the Commission this morning to prove he had endorsed notes for other governments than Mercier's, even when these notes were signed by government officials. He said he had advanced money to governments for the last 12 years and that no letters of credit were necessary. Simply an acknowledgment of the sums advanced was all that was necessary.

C. N. Armstrong was again re-examined, but the greater part of his deposition was only a repetition of what he said before the Senate at Ottawa. Witness said that the figures shown in his contracts represented the real figures of work done and that they were not above the value of the work done. His benefits by the enterprise were certainly above $100,000. Witness gave a list of amounts due him in April last. They totalled $345,000. Being asked if he meant to insinuate he had more claims against the Government, witness answered, "No, but I did not get enough."

Provincial Secretary Langelier was the next witness. He stated that all the amounts mentioned by Pacaud as having been paid on his behalf were correct. He referred to the manner in which he had given Pacaud his interest in L'Electeur and how afterwards when asked Pacaud expressed his utmost willingness to aid him in the building of his new house. Mercier had been equally willing to aid him, and on going to Europe had left him an endorsed note for $4000. Langelier corroborated every word of testimony given by either Mercier or Pacaud that might bear on the case. He swore most solemly and positively, however, that he did not have any knowledge that so much as one cent of the money came from the Baie des Chaleurs transaction. Pacaud had told him repeatedly that he was making lots of money with L'Electeur. Witness was willing to return the shares Pacaud bought for him in the Fortress Hotel.

Rose, president of the council, was then sworn. He signed the order in council, but never saw Pacaud during the Baie des Chaleurs affair, nor had he seen him approaching any of his colleagues. He denied all knowledge of any crookedness.

Hon. Mr. Shehyn, provincial secretary, was the next witness. He was equally ignorant of the goodings.

Hon. Mr. Robidoux, who is ill, is to be examined at his house.

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—The Globe's Quebec correspondent, referring to the position of the local Cabinet, says it is clear that those who predicted the dismissal of the Ministry are rapidly growing less positive in their declarations. It is now believed in the best informed circles that the Government will not be dismissed, and that friction between the Lieutenant-Governor and his advisers will be avoided by Angers' removal to a department at Ottawa.

LAWLESSNESS IN TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 9.—The situation of affairs in Tennessee is becoming alarming. It has but one equal in the history of America, and that is the time when Carolina attempted to secede from the United States. It has been stated officially that the rebellion of miners, so far as estimated, has damaged the commercial standing of East Tennessee to the amount of millions of dollars. Two companies, one with fifty millions capital and located at Bristol, the other with one hundred millions, and located at Elizabethtown, refused to enter the State claiming that the State, not being able to protect its own interests, cannot protect the interests of capital. Suspicious communication is being held between the East Tennessee firms and the miners of Kentucky, Alabama and Virginia. The hardy Mountaineers who released the convicts have sworn that the governor shall not re-build the stockades, and that if he sends the convicts back to the Briceville and Coal Creek mines they will be butchered in cold blood. Sheriff Rutherford, of Anderson county, who was notified by Governor Buchanan yesterday that if he could not sustain order and protect the people his resignation would be requested, received a notice to-day. Two death heads, with grinning skulls and cross bones were marked on the paper, and under it this significant message: "Tell your Governor that if he sends the convicts back again we will kill them one by one. We mean business. The Miners' Committee." The law is now openly defied. There can be nothing but bloodshed if the Governor really intends to rebuild the stockades. Governor Buchanan means business, too. He has had 50 new Gatling guns and thousands of small arms purchased. The state has paid out to date $168,000 for the capture of convicts, and the lessees steadily refuse to keep their part of the contract.

New Consumption Cure.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Nov. 7.—Miss Maggie Doneger, 18 years of age, began to-day a most unusual treatment for consumption, which may yet rival the famous Dr. Koch's lymph as a remedy for tuberculosis. For some time Maggie has been suffering from pulmonary affection, and finally, under the direction of her medical adviser, has resorted to a dietetic treatment, which is to consist exclusively of young dog flesh. For this purpose a fat healthy Newfoundland pup was killed and nicely dressed, and she began eating it to-day. It is claimed that dog flesh, in course of assimilation, is converted into lymph of more than ordinary vitality, which, being absorbed by the blood corpuscles, supplants the decayed tissue and adds new strength and vigor to the patient. Whether this be true or not, Maggie proposes to test its efficacy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The World's special from Shelbyville, Ind., says: Maggie Doneger, the young woman who began a dog meat diet last Thursday for the cure of consumption, says she rather likes it, that it tastes like lamb. Many cases are cited by the older citizens in which the permanent cure of consumption has been affected by drinking the broth of dog meat and eating the flesh of dogs. It is said that one George Goderich was cured in this way. It is certain that he recovered and lived to be 87 years old, and died finally of infirmities incident to old age. It was said that Dr. John Kennedy then a prominent physician, who was treating him, prescribed the remedy, but the doctor denied it.

A Bonaparte Divorce Case.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Evening News of this city has published a story to the effect that Rosalie Bonaparte has filed a petition asking for a divorce from her husband, Louis Clavering Bonaparte. This action is the outcome of a rather complicated series of matrimonial events which has their origin in a divorce suit instituted against Rosalie by her former husband. In this last mentioned suit, Louis Clavering Bonaparte was charged by her husband with having been criminally intimate with Rosalie, his allegations were supported by evidence and the divorce prayed for granted. The relations between Rosalie and Louis culminated in their marriage the latter assuming on that occasion the name of Clovis. Two days later Louis Clavering contracted a marriage with Laura Scott, and it is his living with the latter as his wife which constitutes the grounds for divorce asked for by Rosalie. Louis Clavering Bonaparte is a son of Prince Louis Lucien Bonaparte, who died a few days ago.

To Wed a Duke.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A special to the World from Washington says:—The engagement between Miss Mattie E. Mitchell, daughter of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, to the Duke Francois de la Rochefoucald, of France, will be announced to-morrow. Miss Mitchell is now abroad. She met the duke whom she is about to marry in Paris. The date of the marriage has not yet been definitely fixed, but it will be celebrated soon.

A QUEER FISH.

Uneatable Itself, It Poisons All the Fish in Its Neighborhood.

The anglers and lovers of fish about Park Rapids, Minn., are much disgusted and seriously alarmed over the appearance of numbers of a peculiar fish in the lakes and ponds of that vicinity, and which fish is said to be highly poisonous. The best naturalists, as well as the oldest and most experienced fishermen of the neighborhood, have declared that they are at a loss to name the strange fish, which are so voracious that they swallow all bait as soon as placed in the water and prevent others from biting, while wholly uneatable themselves. It is also believed that they are exterminating the other varieties, as immense quantities of the latter are found dead every day along the shores of the lakes and ponds.

The unknown member of the finny tribe is not unlike a small trout, very plump and very tender, with few bones and those large. It is, however, nearly black in color, except the under parts, where it is of a metallic gray, mixed with gold, and a few red blotches near the fins and about the head. It presents a handsome appearance in the water, about the surface of which it delights to linger, making it very easy game. Eaten it has a pleasant flavor, but will produce violent pains in the stomach, which, if not allayed, precede death only a few hours. How these fish came into the lakes no one knows, but they first appeared about two weeks ago, after a heavy fall of rain, when many firmly believe they accompanied it.

APPEALED TO THE GOVERNOR.

A Lady Asks to Have the Monterey Maze Torn Up.

The maze in the Del Monte Gardens in Monterey, Cal., is so elaborate that visitors frequently get lost in it. "I shall not forget," said a tourist to a New York Tribune reporter, "the exasperation of the wife of a prominent United States senator who determined to solve the intricacies of the maze. She is elderly and inclined to be stout, and was warned that she might find it a difficult matter to get out of the maze. She scouted the idea and marched in. Then there was trouble. She was in there fully an hour before she could find the center of it, and, worse still, she could not find her way out. A young nephew of hers was in the center and tried to explain to his aunt how to get in. She finally lost all patience and exclaimed, with heat: 'Don't talk to me any longer. I'll find my way alone.' She was finally escorted out and, looking back at the maze, said: 'When I get east, I'll tell Mr. Huntington to have that nasty thing torn up. They have no right to put such affairs in a place intended for pleasure. Gracious me! shall I ever reach the hotel? I am almost dead.' And all the way to the hotel she vowed vengeance against that maze and longed to have the sympathetic ear of the great railway millionaire."

GOOD OLD ANGLO-SAXON.

The Virile Words Becoming a Fashion Among Our Young Collegians.

The craze for everything English is reaching the colleges in the shape of Anglo-Saxon lunacy. A boy of mine recently came home from school in the east, says a writer in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, and when we were one day driving together he spoke of the horse as "brack." "What's brack?" I inquired, for I thought it must be some new slang word the youngster had picked up, when, to my enlightenment, he explained that it was Saxon for active. On further inquiry I found that he was full of such expressions, having learned them from a teacher who was an Anglo-Saxon enthusiast. Superannuated was, in his dialect, "overweary," the horizon was the "sky edge," magnificent was "highdeedy," a quarrel was a "brangle," a proud man was "overmindy," and a street car was a "folk wain." I explained to him in sorrow that he was living in the west, where such profundity of wisdom went unappreciated, and that if he should happen to ask a policeman when the "folk wain" that went by "fire ghost" came along, the guardian of the peace would never imagine he was inquiring about an electric street car, but would take charge of him as a lunatic. "Folk wain" may be good enough for Boston, but it will hardly answer west of the Hudson.

A NOVEL THINKING-BOX.

The Theater as a Place to Lay Plans for Business Schemes.

A certain active business man has discovered a new use for the theater. He is an inveterate theater-goer and a well-known first-nighter at both dramatic and operatic events, says the New York Recorder. It has always surprised his friends, however, to discover that he knows comparatively little about theatrical matters, despite his generous patronage of the drama. He explained this to a questioning friend the other night: "I never go to the theater," he said, "to hear the play or the opera. I simply go there to think over my business. There is something in the performances, of whatsoever character they may be, that enables me to distract my mind completely from all my surroundings. No one can break in upon me as they can do if I am at home, and I can sit and give myself over completely to the consideration of business while the performance is going on. I tell you," he added enthusiastically, "I have thought out some of my best business schemes while sitting in the glare of the footlights. I owe a great deal of my fortune to the advantages of the theater."

Royal Fish.

Throughout the British dominions whale and sturgeon are royal fish, and those cast ashore belong to the crown. In old times the rule was that the king should have the head of the whale and the queen the tail, because the whalebone, which was useful in her toilette, was supposed to be in the tail; the truth being, however, that both the whalebone and the precious ambergris were to be found in the head.

Others

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

Her Face Her Fortune,

Is commonly said of famous beauties. She who uses with artistic taste Wisdom's Famous Robertine has fortune in the possessing of a complexion to which nothing but the blush of the rose or the freshness of the lily can be compared. This preparation is just what it is claimed to be—the most delightful toilet article and only perfect beautifier known. Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. JENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BROOLS, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. PIERRE MOSHER, 90 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

COAL

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.),

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL (Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL

House and Steam Coal are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power unequalled by any other bituminous Gas Coal the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used on all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

Archer's Recital Will be the Gem of This Evening's Attractions—The Minstrels.

The gem of this evening's many attractions will be Frederic Archer's organ recital at St. Johns. Mr. and Mrs. Clement Rowlands will render several vocal selections during the evening. One of the prime causes of Frederic Archer's celebrity lies in the fact that he has always recognized the importance of popularizing the instrument of his predilection. He is fully aware that programmes made up exclusively of heavy scholastic works prove wearisome and uninteresting to the general public and musicians alike, and has therefore emancipated the instrument from its thraldom and fully developed its resources. He has elevated it to the rank of a concert instrument and adapted it to the requirements of orchestral compositions of a more generally intelligible character, freely introducing those familiar to a mixed audience. At the same time he is one of the finest living exponents of classical organ music, but judiciously intersperses it with lighter production, which thus become additionally attractive by force of contrast.

LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY.

Great pleasure is taken in announcing "Little Lord Fauntleroy," for it is a rare treat. They will positively make their initial appearance at the Victoria on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next, the 10th and 11th of November. They have played in the principal cities of the United States, including 18 weeks at the Broadway theatre, 10 weeks at the Boston museum, Boston; eight weeks at the Columbia theatre, Chicago; six weeks at the Baldwin theatre, San Francisco; four weeks, Olympic theatre, St. Louis. Introducing the original little lord, Georgie Cooper, supported by Henry French's Little Lord Fauntleroy company, direct from New York.

MISS ADAM'S PUPILS' RECITAL.

The pupils of Miss Adams gave a very pleasant and enjoyable recital Saturday afternoon at the conservatory of music, Douglas street. These recitals are given every month and are each time pleasanter than before. The performances of the little ones were highly creditable to their accomplished teacher.

A FAVORITE.

The Kendals are in New York reviving "The Ironmaster." "Still Water Runs Deep" was acted Oct. 28 and 31, and "A Scrap of Paper" 29, 30. On November 2, "Miss Helyett" (David Belasco's adaptation of M. Andran's opera) was done for the first time in America, Mrs. Leslie Carter appearing in the title role, supported by Laura Clement, M. A. Kennedy, Gilbert Saroney and others of Charles Frohman's forces.

During the performance of "Othello" by Thos. W. Keene's Company at the Auditorium, Spokane, Wash., Chas. Edwards, a discharged employee of the house, with two accomplices, broke into the dressing rooms at the rear of the theatre, and had succeeded in gathering together various articles of wardrobe and jewelry, which they had passed through the window, when they were discovered by Jack Quinn, the stage manager of the house, who gave chase to the thieves. Mr. Quinn succeeded in capturing Edwards with the aid of an officer, but the other two thieves escaped. An inventory disclosed the loss of a fine dagger, belonging to Frank Henning, and presented to him by Edwin Forrest. Walter Matthews also lost a valuable diamond stud, presented to him by his now deceased father. The lost articles were valued highly by their unfortunate losers.

Little Irene Franklin, of "The Burglar" Co., No. 1, is making quite a success in the part of Editha. She completely won the affections of a gentleman who saw her play the character at Cleveland recently. Requesting the little actress to call at his hotel, he surprised her by the presentation of some valuable diamonds and moonstone trinkets.

Little Emma Olsen, only four years old, made her first appearance on any stage at North Manchester, Ind., Oct. 22nd, as Eva in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." She went on without any rehearsal, under the management of C. Langstaff. The little one spoke very distinctly, and made a success. The company came to grief later at Rochester, and Baby Olsen was taken home by Mellie Barrett, who is coaching her for the stage.

Finding it impossible to exclude sheep from the splendid pastures of the Chilcotin plains, it is natural that the cattle men of that country should bring in sheep for themselves in order that they may derive a share of the benefit which will accrue to the sheep men by crowding out cattle. The men who have so long worn the title of "Cattle King" will soon have to be called by another name, "Sheep King!"
